The Embassy of the United States of America in Hanoi is seeking an individual for employment for the position of Laboratory Program Officer (Tuberculosis Program) in its Centers for Disease Control and Prevention/Global AIDS Program (CDC/GAP) in Hanoi.

BASIC FUNCTION OF THE POSITION

Incumbent of this position will report to the Laboratory Program Director and will provide technical assistance and logistical support for on-going laboratory and other program activities in support of CDC-funded cooperative agreement projects in Vietnam. The incumbent will assist in the implementation and monitoring of laboratory and program aspects of CDC/GAP Vietnam programs, including conducting site visits to monitor the quality of Tuberculosis (TB) testing, procurement of equipment, reagents and supplies; identifying training needs; organizing training courses and assuring timely submission of required reports; developing reports and technical presentations; and translating reports as needed.

A copy of the complete position description listing all duties and responsibilities is available in the Human Resources Office Hanoi. Please contact the Human Resources Office at 3850-5000 X5126 for questions.

QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

All applicants are instructed to address each selection criterion detailed below with specific and comprehensive information supporting each criterion.

1. Master level degree in Life Sciences/Microbiology or Medical Doctor degree is required.
2. Must have at least three years of experience in clinical laboratory science.

3. Must have in-depth knowledge of the principles of clinical microbiology, techniques involved in diagnosis of TB, HIV, and microbiological monitoring treatment of HIV-infected TB patients.
4. Must be familiar with the Vietnam health care system and the Ministry of Health, its structure, organization and policies.
5. Must have strong interpersonal skills with the ability to develop effective working relationships with international, national, provincial, and local partners. Ability to support logistical arrangements, including coordination of meetings and trainings and workshops when needed, as well as ability to compile information and write routine and technical reports is required.
6. Level 3 (Good working knowledge) Speaking/Reading/Writing English is required (this will be tested). Level 5 (Professional) Speaking/Reading/Writing Vietnamese is required.

SELECTION PROCESS

When fully qualified, U.S. Citizen Eligible Family Members (USEFMs) and U.S. Veterans are given preference. Therefore, it is essential that candidates address the required qualifications above in the application.

ADDITIONAL SELECTION CRITERIA

1. Management will consider nepotism/conflict of interest, budget, and residency status in determining successful candidacy.
2. Current Ordinarily Resident employees serving a probationary period and/or have not completed six months of employment with the Mission are not eligible to apply.
3. Current Ordinarily Resident employees with an Overall Summary Rating of Needs Improvement or Unsatisfactory on their most recent Employee Performance Report are not eligible to apply.
4. Currently employed US Citizen EFMs who hold a Family Member Appointment (FMA) are ineligible to apply for advertised positions within the first 90 calendar days of their employment.
5. Currently employed NORs hired under a Personal Services Agreement (PSA) are ineligible to apply for advertised positions within the first 90 calendar days of their employment unless currently hired into a position with a When Actually Employed (WAE) work schedule.
6. The candidate must be able to obtain and hold post security clearance.

TO APPLY

Interested candidates for this position must submit the following, or the application will not be considered:

1. Not-Ordinary Resident (NOR): Application for US Federal Employment (OF-612 or DS-1950);
2. Ordinary Resident (OR): Post form "Application for Employment with the U.S. Mission to Vietnam" available on the website.
3. Candidates who claim U.S. Veterans preference must provide a copy of their Form DD-214 with their application.
4. Any other documentation (e.g., essays, certificates, awards, copies of degrees earned, etc.) that addresses the qualification requirements of the position as listed above.

AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

The U.S. Mission in Vietnam provides equal opportunity and fair and equitable treatment in employment to all people without regard to race, color religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, political affiliation, marital status, or sexual orientation. The Department of State also strives to achieve equal employment opportunity in all personnel operations through continuing diversity enhancement programs.

The EEO complaint procedure is not available to individuals who believe they have been denied equal opportunity based upon marital status or political affiliation. Individuals with such complaints should avail themselves of the appropriate grievance procedures, remedies for prohibited personnel practices, and/or courts for relief.
